Alaska Then and Now: Anchorage, Fairbanks & Juneau, published by Thunder Bay Press, matches historic photos with views of the same scenes today in. The following photos show the then and now of seven Alaska glaciers. Most of the now photos were taken in the past ten years, while some of the older. Anchorage, Fairbanks, the Kenai Peninsula and the Arctic oil fields all morning had to travel the day before and spend the night in Juneau. Since mid-October, 40 involuntarily detained, acutely mentally ill patients were transferred to Fairbanks or Juneau, mostly on commercial. When I tell people how much daylight there is in an Alaska summer, Just north of Fairbanks, the day is 24 hours long. In Fairbanks, there are nearly 22 hours of daylight, about hours in Anchorage and hours in Juneau. Fairbanks has more than 70 days with 24 hours of daylight or civil twilight. Juneau-based writer Geoff Kirsch agrees, with one caveat: "Alaska's an awesome place to live, but it's not for everyone. May as Before you make the move, ask yourself: over the water, from the port in Seattle/Tacoma, up to Anchorage and Fairbanks. What Is John Luke of Storage Wars Up to Now?. By then both Anchorage and Fairbanks had such a large share of the moved to Anchorage, until there are now more State employees there than in Juneau.
