

This book can be used by anyone with a desire to explore whether they are businessmen, students, retirees or families. We believe that even if you are completely foreign to Chinese language, this manual will help you turn confusing and baffling travelling experiences (and potential disasters) into enjoyable, exotic and pleasurable adventures that you'll want to brag about for years to come! In the following pages we will focus mainly on two aspects of China: introducing altogether seven different destinations located in the vicinity of Shanghai (all suitable for a daily trip or a weekend getaway excursion) and explaining some basic notions of Chinese language, as well as providing some practical phrases - how to buy a bus or train ticket, ask for directions and so on - you can use when travelling yourself.
