

Ned Halley's refreshingly different guide takes the nonsense out of buying and enjoying wine. It's designed specifically to help the millions of regular wine-drinkers make the best choices. There's no fancy and meaningless winespeak. If it's only good for stripping paint, it's not listed in this book! You won't buy a bad wine if you follow Ned's advice. The selection process is simple: locate your shop; select red or white; choose your country; name your price; then identify the style of wine you want from the concise and evocative tasting notes. It couldn't be simpler. Plus there's a score out of 12 for every wine, Ned's top 10s, tips on storing, serving, and cross-Channel and internet buying. Finally, Ned's accessible vocabulary of wine helps you learn even more about the wines you enjoy.
