The sixth in a collection of eight short stories to run alongside the second series of ITVs BAFTA award-winning show, Broadchurch. This story will be released at midnight following the broadcast of episode six. The stories, written by bestselling author Erin Kelly in close collaboration with Broadchurch creator Chris Chibnall, will consist of 100% original plotlines that are tied closely to that evenings episode. The stories will offer an unrivalled opportunity to spend more time with the characters, allowing you to delve deeper into their lives, histories and enhance your enjoyment of the TV series in a completely ground-breaking style. You wont be able to wait for the next episode and story! Praise for the official Broadchurch series one novel: Loved the ITV series? They youll adore this clever read from psychological-thriller queen Erin. While a book based on a TV show shouldnt work, this really does...the big reveal/ i> Kellys novelisation of the eponymous British TV series, works as both a classic puzzle and an unnerving portrait of a little English town wracked by a young boys murder... Kelly folds a loving portrait of rural Dorset and a well-made whodunit into a painstaking account of the grief and unimaginable pain that follow in the wake of one childs murder. Kirkus Starred Review The narrative allows for an insight into the mindset of the characters - from the baffled detectives to the raw despair of Dannys parents...a crackingly well-constructed crime story, with a wonderfully shocking conclusion.
