General FictionLarge Print EditionCharlotte Chaudin has created herself from a chrysalis, building a successful career as a fashion designer and using her butterfly wings to conceal that she is not quite what she seems. Though she has youthful success, a man she loves, and a seemingly golden future, she knows that she is a stranger in the rich and fashionable world she moves in, and senses impending betrayal. She is an outsider, born with both a golden talent and a tragic inheritance. She is also a survivor. This is a compelling departure from Butlers famous crime novels, which Booklist says are For readers who enjoy literate, intelligent, thoughtful writing.
