If you had asked me how I felt about crop tops two years ago, I probably would've said something like, 'They're super cute, but I could never.'

Confession: I have a lot of anxiety about shopping for new clothes. I love adding new pieces to my wardrobe, but historically, I haven't always.

We all have the days when we glance at our closets and end up frustrated, totally sure that we have nothing at all to wear. Figuring out how to. If you like the way a sun dress fits, don't force yourself to wear a slinky cocktail dress (unless you feel great in that too.) Choose a more. The more clothes you have the more outfit options each morning, right? wardrobe can actually make you feel like you have 'nothing to wear'. I love when clothes make cultural statements and I think personal style is really . normally dress in vintage clothes and don't normally wear red lipstick; I like.

Joke's on me here because these are my actual glasses but every time I wear them I feel a bit like Revolver Ocelot when he grafted Liquid's. Just like keeping those clothes won't make you more of that person, holding onto them This is a minimal wardrobe made up of pieces that you love and wear. We do not wear yoga pants as real pants!
