

Stanley's adventure to find Livingstone is retold here with...1 ) 70+ footnotes and images not in the original text2 ) 8 additional images not part of the original text. In 1871 Henry M. Stanley entered the dark and mysterious interior of Africa in search of Dr. Livingstone. Financed by Gordon Bennett of the New York Herald, Stanley with no experience of Africa was charged with finding and relieving Livingstone, whatever the cost. This brave young man, took the mission to his heart and commenced a journey that has since become a trek of living myth. In this book you'll find the entire text of Stanley's book detailing his adventure. The footnotes offer suggestions and insights for how this epic journey might be turned into a Role Playing Campaign for those who like a taste of horror in their games.
