

The map is double-sided and presents the region in three sections, as indicated on the area coverage image (Note: Istrian Peninsula is not included). Topography is shown by relief shading with spot heights, with plenty of names of mountain and hill chains, etc. National parks and other protected areas are clearly marked. Road network includes small local roads and selected cart tracks, and indicates motorway services, routes closed to traffic or not recommended for caravans, seasonal closures, gradients for steep roads, tourist routes and scenic roads, etc. Railways and ferry routes to the islands are marked. Picturesque towns and villages are highlighted. The regions 10 top sights are prominently marked, with brief descriptions provided in a booklet attached to the map cover. Symbols mark other places of interest and facilities, including campsites and youth hostels, marinas, golf courses, museums, churches and castles, viewpoints, etc. Latitude and longitude lines are drawn at intervals of 10. The booklet attached to the map cover also includes an index listing all localities with their postcodes, plus street plans of Dubrovniks Old Town and central Pula, Rijeka, Split, Sibenik and Zadar, and a short multi-lingual (including English) guide. Map legend, conveniently shown on both sides of the map, and the descriptions include English.
