The American Scholar is a quarterly magazine dedicated to current events, politics, history, science, culture and the arts. Essays are common in elementary, middle, high school and college, and you may even need to write essays in the business world (although they are usually). Four types of essays exist including: narration, description, exposition, and argument. Each type has a unique purpose: some tell a story, some are descriptive. Did you know the word 'essay' is derived from a Latin word 'exagium', which roughly translates to presenting one's case? So essays are a short piece of writing.

As the government begins its crackdown on essay mill websites, it's easy to see just how much pressure students are under to get top grades.
