

... As I contemplated this new bit of cryptic information, Hauser pulled out a pocket watch that was quite peculiar. Its face had no numbers... Training officially begins for Jack Duffy. It doesn't take long before he's overwhelmed by everything that's involved with his new profession. The next soul up for collection ends up being a much more difficult job than either he or Hauser have anticipated. This third installment is packed with action and emotion. In the end, Jack experiences something that shakes him to his soul and is left with deeper regret for his unfortunate life-altering decision. What Readers Are Saying: ... Paul B. Kohler never disappoints as he gives readers a well-told story that will make you think and one that will remain with you long after the book is closed ...-P.S. ... An awesome addition to the Borrowed Souls collection. Each addition is more creative than the last. Paul's imagination seems limitless ...-A Reader A word about this book: Eternal Devotion is the third part in a serialized novel.
