

With Farnsworth on Contracts, you can draft all your agreements with the Reporter for the Restatement (Second) of Contracts as your adviser. It's hard to imagine a more dependable - or more helpful - building block in the growth of any legal practice. Drawing on all relevant statutory and judicial sources, and proceeding quickly and clearly from underlying law to specific clause language, Farnsworth gives you: * Lucid capsule summaries of thousands of cases * Detailed applications of basic doctrines such as bad faith and employment at will * Marginal subheads so you can quickly scan chapters for the material you want And you can be sure of finding all the latest developments in such hot areas as: * Living together agreements * Lender liability * Recovery for lost opportunity * Take-or-pay clauses * Hardship clauses ...and all the other controversial contract issues that arise with increasing frequency in practice today. You may order Farnsworth on Contracts as a cornerstone for your library, but it will not spend much time on your library shelf. Once you have this kind of expertise and guidance at your disposal, you'll be using it every day!
