

Baby Boomer Fiction - No 4 in The Southhill Sagas, set in leafy Surrey to the south of London. Each book in the series stands alone. Martin loves fishing. His dream in life is to run his own business, passing on his love of fishing. His wife Cilla is behind him all the way and they open a full service fishing tackle shop which they call Fishermans Dream. Then an out of control lorry on the motorway puts an end to Martins life and his dream. But Cilla has to go on, Cilla and the business Martin so loved. But something about the accident is troubling her. Was there perhaps a side of Martin she didnt know? Does she need to find answers, when she doesnt even know the questions? A family saga of love, grief, despair and one womans struggle to make sense of it all.
