

Girl from the Hood Gone Good discusses the trials and tribulations Sanchez underwent throughout most of her life. It shares many of the tools and resources she acquired along the way as she sought and fought for the answers and key out of her chaotic situation. Her life was filled with childhood molestation, domestic violence, drinking, drugs and an overall lifestyle fueled by doses of daily insanity. She managed to persevere by going to school, attaining a higher education all the way up to her Masters Degree and receiving extended credits even after she graduated. She turned to self help books, healers, counselors, psychotherapists and shamans to release the mindset that had bound her for decades. In this book, she guides the reader into understanding how they can begin this journey of self discovery and healing from a pain filled past into a joy filled tomorrow.
