

The latest novel from Chris Cleave—the award-winning and international #1 bestselling author of Little Bee—is a heartstring-tugger with an adrenaline-fueled plot (People) that asks: how much are we willing to sacrifice for the people we love? IT'S THE ULTIMATE TEST OF A MOTHER'S LOVE ... IF your dreams pull you in one direction and your heart in another, which should you follow? This is the question that haunts Kate Meadows, a world champion athlete whose eight-year-old daughter Sophie is battling a recurrence of childhood leukemia just as Kate is about to compete for her last chance at an Olympic gold medal. For years, Kate has sacrificed everything for her family and watched her best friend and closest rival, Zoe Castle, conquer the world stage. Kate has never won gold and will have to go through Zoe—who has everything to lose—to get it. Now her child is facing a life-threatening illness, and the stakes are higher than ever. How can she do what is right for her daughter without abandoning all of her dreams?
