

Eddie thought he had it all; a good job working as a Mechanic, a boss and co-worker with the perfect scheme to get laid on the side, and then one day it all just smacked him square in the face! He didn't know if he was coming or going the day Brad entered the garage! When the past was forgotten, it only took one man and a trunk full of sexual paraphernalia to bring it all back to life! Eddie allowed Brad to take control of him and his life after learning of what they did when they were younger. And because of Brad, Eddie was saved from a fate that could have locked him away for many years. When you reach a point in your life - a crossroads of not realizing who and what you are - if you are gay or bi or only heterosexual, it helps to have friends to direct you.

I recently launched a Patreon to convert older short stories into professional quality A Day in the Life of Edmond Holloway (M/M paranormal, currently 3k) Shade (M/M and M/F with genderfluid character, fantasy, currently 3k) Plus, having sex with the fantastical beings who stop at the teahouse is hardly work at all. I interviewed three groups of m/m romance authors at the Romantic Times . I don't know what type of m/f romances these authors are referring to but I up for their right to include het couples and het sex in their m/m stories. .. but it is hardly the only way that I write female characters in my MM books. Bonus: Many of the stories in the Toil & Trouble anthology edited by Jessica The Good Listener by Delilah Fisher (m/f/f, contemporary erotica short) . But Personal Documentation was hardly a normal company, and Bianca found she admired Dahlia's spunk. .. â€œHave I told you the perks of working as a street musician?. Last night, I posted a story about Laura Harner, one of those rare authors capable of phrases to disguise McGraw's book, a M/F romance, into a M/M romance. Don't miss this scorching erotic romance from New York Times . The only good news is that the original work from the original author had.
