

Sheâ€™d always heard Hollywood was full of monsters. She didnâ€™t know they meant actual monsters. Monsters in Hollywood, Book 4 All of Hollywood is talking about Calypso Productionâ€™s new top-secret action movie, and Joanna is tapped to be the production designer. Thereâ€™s just one big issue: the lead actors are monsters. Literally. Bound by tradition and discipline, Tokakiâ€™s clan of shapeshifters has maintained the old ways even as theyâ€™ve retreated from the human race. When members of another clan come up with a plan to expose and explain their hidden existence, he agrees to help. As the warrior who trains all others, he knows how to inflict both the maximum, and minimum, amount of damage. Because of this experience heâ€™s asked to become something they call a â€œstunt coordinator.â€• When Joanna and Tokaki meet itâ€™s electric, and not just because Joanna watches him shift from a massive white tiger into a handsome, naked man. Tokaki is fascinated by the outside world, especially Joanna, whoâ€™s colorful in more ways than one. When he takes Joanna to a hidden temple deep in the Chinese mountains, neither expects sheâ€™ll be risking her very life. In order to save the woman he loves, Tokaki must turn to his family for help, risking the secrets his clan has kept for a millennium. Warning: This title contains an artistic woman, a demanding warrior, and sexy misuse of temple grounds.
