

Alana's been married to Tom for years, and she's determined to stay that way. Even after she discovered his gambling problem. Even though they've had to sell their home and downsize. Some things are for keeps and theirs is a kind of love that can withstand just about anything. Just about. When Alana finds herself alone with Tom's boss, an instant attraction soon gives rise to a bargain that Alana can't resist. Assertive, assured and fabulously wealthy, Nathan's everything that Tom isn't and Alana finds herself falling for him hard. Powerless to resist the excitement she feels just from being with him, she has no idea of how far she'll go to please him.
