

Ruth Arents rhyming poems are refreshing, reflective, and reassuring. Readers of all ages will enjoy a myriad of topics from life's daily challenges to current politics; everything from spilling your food to choosing an optimistic attitude. She shows compassion while charging older family members with responsibility for their attitude and as role models for the younger generations. When shared with others, they may encourage lively discussions as Ruth's wisdom and humor are thought provoking and amusing. Read I Am Older Than Most of You together for laughter and conversation which may lead to timely sharing that will be meaningful for all. These inspiring poems will enliven feelings of wellbeing, especially for the older reader. Whether sitting in a rocking chair, going fishing, or running a marathon, there is a poem that will be encouraging.
