

An African American couple have been carrying on a sizzling love affair for well over a year, with indications being that they are getting ready to marry. She is forty years old and would like to try having a baby soon before it is too late. All indications are that they are both on the same page until a third party slips onto the scene. This new lady seemingly wants to steer someone elses man into her arms, but his main squeeze would have to be willing to let him go first, and that just aint happening!
