

Running an all-you-can-eat buffet gets a bit dull sometimes except for the day Brian's dream girl comes walking in through the front door. Never mind that she doesn't know he even exists. Never mind that a gun-toting, nylon stocking-hooded robber is about to hold him up for all his cash. Please note that while many of Scott's stories have a speculative element (fantasy, science fiction, supernatural, etc.), this one does not and is instead contemporary fiction.
