

LIFE IN THE FAST LANE Racing cars is in Kerri Harts blood--literally, since its the family business. But Hart Racing is in dire financial straits, and as the only female rookie driver, Kerris sponsorship offers always tend to be of the unzipped racing-suit variety. Its a message shed rather not sell to her young fans. But how can she afford not to? LOVE ON OVERDRIVER Ranger Colt knows how to make a womans heart race. But when his voice pops up on Kerris headset--while shes in mid-tailspin--shes in no mood for his charms. Colt Hardware now has a significant stake in the Hart family business, and Kerri has no choice but to work with him. But when her ex-boyfriend makes a very public, tabloid-fodder scene that threatens to tarnish her image, its Ranger who comes to the rescue. Pretending to be engaged to generate some good publicity seems like a good plan. In fact, it works--all too well. What begins as a ruse is revving up to feel a whole lot like the real thing. Will Kerri and Rangers fake-lationship take a wild turn...and lead them toward the finish? The type of book that keeps you up late into the night, In the Fast Lane is utterly addictive and completely satisfying.
