

Sean had a difficult time in school today because even friends can sometimes say things that hurt our feelings and make us question our decisions in life. Seans mother takes the moment to illustrate how each of us has our place in the world. She shows him how important our decisions are and how these choices shape not only our values, but can affect the values of those around us. A short heart-warming story that teaches why it's okay to be different and how each of us can make the world a little better every day with the choices we make.
