

This is an introduction to many of the important aspects of Jewish life by following the festivals through the year. Part of a series, the book is arranged in self-contained spreads offering the use of pictures and activities for learning, as well as the text. Other books in the series include Hinduism, Islam, Christianity, Sikhism and Buddhism and all are intended for use by both students and teachers with each spread offering a ready-made lesson. The emphasis is on an activity-based approach to learning and a variety of material - stories, interviews and information - specially chosen to motivate and engage students has been included.
