

Como hizo con la leyenda del rey Arturo en LAS NIEBLAS DE AVALON, la autora recrea la caída de Troya de una forma nueva y audaz, desde el juicio de Paris, el rapto de Helena (que aquí no es una malvada adúltera sino una amable y apacible mujer consagrada a Paris y a sus hijos) y la convocatoria de los ejércitos griegos por Agamenon, el encolerizado cunado de Helena, hasta la trágica destrucción de la ciudad decretada por los dioses... y por el extremado orgullo de sus líderes. La heroína de esta historia épica es Casandra, la bella y atormentada princesa de la casa real de Troya, que se enfrenta a una terrible lucha interior contra su lealtad dividida: la que debe a su padre, el rey, y a sus hermanos, y su creciente fidelidad a la vieja fe del matriarcado y la Madre Tierra.
