

Henry James (Nueva York, 15 de abril de 1843 – Londres, 28 de febrero de 1916) fue un escritor y crítico literario estadounidense (aunque paso mucho tiempo en Europa y se nacionalizo británico casi al final de su vida) de finales del siglo XIX y principios del XX, conocido por sus novelas y relatos basados en la técnica del punto de vista, que le permite el análisis psicológico de los personajes desde su interior. Fue hijo de Henry James Sr. y hermano menor del filósofo y psicólogo William James.
