

Lilly is a novella about an engaging and likable heroine facing a defining moment in her life, living in 1814 regency England. Lady Lilly Castleford needs to marry a gentleman of fortune to secure her small family's welfare. Lilly also wishes to experience a grand romance with shared passionate feelings and love. The Earl of Suffolk, Reece Randall needs a wife to produce an heir. He neither desires nor means to share his life with his wife. When Lilly meets the mysterious fiance, her strong attraction turns to dismay when she learns of the earl's roguish behavior, deceptive courtship, and flawed character. Reece is pleasantly surprised to learn his intended bride is a beauty both on the outside and inside. Can Lilly forgive the earl and will Lord Randall alter his deprived lifestyle, proving he is a changed man worthy of Lilly's love?
