

This manual has been written for all surgeons and ophthalmologists who operate on eyelids. Its purpose is to present a systematic approach to eyelid surgery and to simplify the choice of operation. Flow-charts are used which allow the reader to see at a glance which is the most appropriate procedure for any given set of circumstances. Each operation is described under the section headings principle, indications and method. A large number of simple line drawings have been included to make the text as clear as possible. Alternative operations are omitted in the interests of brevity, but references and further reading lists are included at the end of each chapter. This edition has a new chapter on lacrimal surgery by R.A.N. Welham FRCS, Consultant Surgeon at Moorfields Eye Hospital and Institute of Ophthalmology, University of London, and Consultant Surgeon at the Royal Berkshire Hospital, Reading.
