

En 1909 Jack London publico "Martin Eden", una novela marcadamente autobiografica en la que relata la lucha de un muchacho inculto por desarrollarse intelectualmente y llegar a ser un escritor de exito. El joven Martin es un marinero que una noche es invitado a cenar por los Morse, una familia acomodada a cuyo hijo ha ayudado en una reyerta. Abrumado por el ambiente sofisticado que se respira en la casa, Martin decide que esa es la vida que el quiere llevar, dejando atras el ambiente sordido de trabajo duro, rinas y borracheras que ha conocido hasta la fecha.
