

Nina Cordoba is known for her laugh a lot, cry a little romantic comedies, sure to leave you with a smile on your face. Now, her four most popular novels are together in one value-priced set. No More Mr. Nice Girl: In this laugh-out-loud romantic comedy, life-long good girl Paige Tipton learns what her dead husband was doing, for years, while she bent over backwards to try to please him. And she hopes Jeffrey is watching from hell when she finds some long-haired biker dude and does with him what Jeffrey did with all those hookers. Besides, a guy she finds at a creepy dive bar will never, ever appear in her upscale real life. Now, if she can only get the biker to cooperate! Not Dreaming of You: Kiki Villanueva holds a master's degree from UCLA, is the best second grade teacher ever, and believes she had a psychic dream when she was thirteen in which she was given a list of her future husband's attributes. Children are her life, and Kiki has good reason to think she may not have any if she doesn't marry soon. She decides that when she goes back to L.A. for the summer, she'll start using the list to sort through potential candidates. When jaded political journalist Mark Bennett confesses to his doctor he no longer finds women or anything else exciting, Dr. Chuck is worried he's depressed and suggests a change of pace. Mark agrees to write a fluff piece for a magazine about people who join high-priced dating services. (His premise is Losers or Lunatics?) The dating service introduces him to Kiki, and he's charmed by her open, passionate nature—not to mention her big, brown, doe eyes—though she definitely belongs in the lunatic category with that psychic stuff. Mark is a confirmed bachelor from a family where no one says the L-word. However, while accompanying warm, sexy Kiki on her match-making service dates for his story, he soon wonders why he's literally driving her to the arms of other men. If he could only get her to forget her list, and everything he said when they first met—oh, and the fact that he's been a complete jackass! But Kiki's not about to waste time on an emotionally challenged cynic who only wants to play—and is definitely not on her list, even if he is handsome, and funny, and sexy—uh-oh! Always Dreaming of You: Tragedy has struck the Carson-Villanueva family. All Chris can do is keep busy and hope the crippling feeling of loss will fade, until an encounter in a parking lot with a striking young woman injects him with optimism. But when she tips him for helping her and drives off without giving her name, he's disappointed...and a little insulted. Elle Lorrence has one goal: To escape her mother's world of paparazzi, entourages, and plastic-surgeried cyborgs. So far, it's been harder than she thought. But if she can only pretend to be an actress for this one little film, the paycheck will enable her to set her escape plans in motion. When Chris meets his new dialect coaching client, she turns out to be Elle, from the parking lot. She's almost irresistible, but he has no desire to get mixed up with an actress and live a Hollyweird lifestyle. And after her bizarre reaction to an incident at the diner, he knows he'd better do his job and get far away before he's sucked in by her allure. Every fiber of Elle's being tells her Cristoval Cesar Carson is the embodiment of the man from her dreams. But are the hurdles she must overcome to possess him insurmountable? Dont Make Me Make You Brownies: Raised by liberal activists, Abbie Greenwood wants to save the world. But the L.A. TV station where she works won't let her do the important stories, and the guys upstairs are suggesting she mix a little of the nasty into her helping-people segments to raise ratings. Afraid the TV biz is sucking out her soul, Abbie agrees to take all the time-off and house sit for her sister in the suburbs of Houston where conservatism and good barbecue skills are highly rated. Across the street Rick is a real hunk..
