

This book is a unique blend of marriage, family, teamwork and death. It was written as a gift from mother to daughter to define the circumstances of her daughter's birth and provide a glimpse of the history that brought these parents together. The author's near death experience on November 10, the day her daughter was born, provides an enlightening insight from mother to child. More than anything else this is a little gem of love, of a zest for life, and of one woman's sense of wonder. It is a beautiful expression of how we gain insight as we mature, and how we learn how to put our experiences in perspective. Since you know Shirley Jones well enough to hear her speak as you are reading her words, you really don't want to miss this opportunity.
