

Two years ago, a star many light years away from Earth went Supernova... Sending out gamma rays that wiped out 99% of the world's human population... This is the survivors' stories of survival in an empty world... One Mans Island ~ The Arizona Chronicles... When I first sat down to write One Man's Island, I had no idea how adored some of the characters would become. From Tim to Robyn, who I originally wrote as a boy, to Ensign Johnson and Petty Officer Suplee, who began as nameless fillers and by the time I was finished writing the first draft, I'd fallen in love with both, and they were a lot of fun to write. This being said, and after several positive fan emails, I decided to revisit all of them in a unique way. In my novel One Man's Island, the book is split into two parts, Part 1 & Part 2, and there is a five-year gap between these parts. This monthly serial series, The Arizona Chronicles, will fill in that gap, and revisit all of your old favorite characters, and also introduce some new ones. So, dear Readers, sit back in your favorite reading space with your favorite beverage, relax, hold on and enjoy the ride!
