The Plane. In plane geometry, all the shapes exist in a flat plane. A plane can be thought of as a flat sheet with no thickness, and which goes on for ever in both directions. It is absolutely flat and infinitely large, which makes it hard to draw. A point in geometry is a location. It has no size i.e. no width, no length and no depth. A point is shown by a dot. Point. A line is defined as a line of points that.
