

After backsliding from witchcraft for several years following her marriage to a normal human named James, Scarlett finds that not much in her life is normal. Because of James she is chased by a jealous master vampire and an incubus who proves to be more than he appears. Scarlett is from a line of ancient witches, and to protect herself and those she loves she must draw on her ancestors spell book that has gotten in the wrong family member hands. After James betrayal, she reaches deep for courage to become the witch she knows she was meant to be. But she is not alone. A new lover with a secret, charms and pursues her to claim her lonely heart. Laurence is a werewolf in the midst of a divided pack war. He has made enemies with the master vampire that desires Scarletts bloody beating heart in the palm of her hand. He has vowed to protect Scarlett and lead his pack or die trying. Scarlett is in love but has her own plans of dealing with her own enemies. Naturally, their wills clash and threaten the happiness she has just accepted from Laurence. Scarlett has decided, based on her past, becoming a true daughter of her ancestors is more important than anything. But is she willing to choose love over magic again?
