

Snapshots and Recollections is a short, insightful travelogue of unusual stories through what was Persia, in 1976: Turkey, Iran, Iraq, Pakistan and Afghanistan. Traveling in an old van with her companion, Charles, Madeline recounts their memorable adventures made more stark because the trip portrays these countries before the chaos of war and ethnic clashes which began when Russia invaded Afghanistan just a few years later, not to mention the violent changes from 9/11 up until today. The photos are numerous and exceptional.
