

Fey Time Travelers Series, Book One: When a violent storm spawns power outages, radio DJ Tara O'Neill must keep broadcasting severe warnings to local residents without electrical power. As the storm intensifies and dead air devours the airwaves, Tara must reboot the transmitter to get back on the air. Lightning strikes as Tara reboots the system, hurtling her through time. In 1798 Ireland, Lord Dillon needs a bride, immediately, to escape his enemy's snare. He has always respected the Fairy Race. As a boy, he played with them in the secret glen and was warned that one day he would be called upon to shelter one of their own who has lost her way among mortals ... Tara appears just when he needs her, a strange woman with no memory of her past; a wounded woman needing his protection. A beguiling woman with fey features and a strange tattoo of fairy wings across her back ... As they journey to Dublin, little does Tara realize her husband's business there is rebellion. The United Irishmen are preparing to seize the government there and free Ireland from her British oppressors. Will she be able to save Adrian from a cause that will fail? This novel depicts the events of the Rebellion of 1798 in Ireland by the United Irishmen. Can Tara prevent Adrian from dying for a cause destined to fail?
