

Society starts to crumble. When his wife was murdered during a mission, Alex Cave quit the CIA for a less stressful life as a geology instructor. Let someone else save the world from the bad people. At least, that was his plan. While on vacation sailing the waters of the Puget Sound, he sees a brilliant flash of light from an oil tanker and changes course to help, but there was no explosion, no one on board, and the oil has mysteriously vanished without a trace. Fuel supplies along the west coast of the US start to disappear and society starts to crumble, pitting human against human. Can Alex find a solution for this dire situation? A fantastic ride from start to finish, with thrilling scenarios, exhilarating situations, and nail-biting suspense. #1 bestseller by this award-winning author. Grab your copy today.
