

When emotionally damaged Billionaire Vintner, Blake Greer returns from Italy to his family's vineyard in the Nappa Valley, he vows he will never love again. To shed himself of the damage wrought by international love-gone-wrong he immerses himself in a restoration project that will see the family vineyard lauded as the finest in the Valley. Essie Mills wants out of the Valley. All her life she's dreamed of studying art in Milan and she's secured a scholarship. All she needs now is make enough money to get on the plane in time for the first semester. What neither Blake nor Essie count on is running into each other in the estate's century old wine caves. When the universe decrees that the timing is right all other plans must be put on hold. A complete short & sexy billionaire romance full of unapologetic instalove that can be read in your lunch break.
