

The Burning Jacket is the story of 11-year-old RAYNIE living in California, with her mother. Her best friend is a rescued desert tortoise named ERMA GEDDON. Raynie's grandmother is living on forest land in the Oregon Coast Range, far removed from modern society. The three protagonists in The Burning Jacket struggle with personal challenges including homelessness, cancer, and ethnic intolerance. They stumble through chaos but emerge with tolerance and love for each other and themselves.
