

Henry James (1843-1916) was an America-born English writer whose novels, short stories and letters established the foundation of the modernist movement in twentieth century fiction and poetry. His career, one of the most significant and influential in English literature, spanned over five decades and resulted in a body of work that has had a profound impact on generations of writers. Born in New York, but educated in France, Germany, England and Switzerland, James often explored the cultural discord between the Old World (Europe) and the New World (United States) in his writings. Included in this ninth volume of The Complete Tales of Henry James are the following stories: Owen Wingrave, The Middle Years, The Death of the Lion, The Coxon Fund, The Next Time, The Altar of the Dead, The Figure in the Carpet, Glasses, The Way It Came, and John Delavoy.
