

In this sequel to the Top Selling fantasy novel The Dragons Prize, Sophie Park blends dungeon-crawling fantasy action, lesbian romance and a bit of spice into an intriguing mixture sure to satisfy your palette! After slaying the dragon Daro and fleeing their homeland, Sandra and Mira have been living a life of quiet solitude in the Wild North. With no one around for miles and nothing to focus on but survival, Sandra has finally quieted the ghosts of Velmar and her guilty conscience. Everything starts to unravel when Vic walks into their life: Mira, itching for adventure and any human company besides Sandra, sets off with his band of mercenaries on a quest to quite possibly save the very world while Sandra tries to focus on keeping the shreds of her sanity intact. On the way Mira finds herself falling for Margo, the group's cleric with an alien philosophy and a reputation for breaking hearts, and Sandra realizes that it may not have been the new lifestyle keeping her sane. While relationships are tested and dangerous monsters challenge everyone's skills, will they all lose The Demon's Game before they even know they're playing?
