

A Cookbook Written For People Who Dont Like To Cook Dont you hate when recipes claim to be easy, and then go on to have 15 ingredients and a dozen steps? Even the majority of slow cooker meals are way too complicated for busy people. And what if you dont know how to braise, sautee, or julienne? You wont eat, probably. Do all these steps matter? Cooking can be a nightmare, and it doesnt make sense that the majority of cookbooks are written by people who like to cook. What if you didnt have to go through 15 steps outlined by the culinary schools? What if the food you want to be eating were just a 3-step process? I mean a real 3-step process, not that hidden-steps-like-in-your-old-math-homework 3 step process. Moms, Dads, Bachelors, and All The Single Ladies Rejoice! This book contains simple, delicious, no-nonsense meals for the cook who wants to eat Paleo without spending 20 hours a week in the kitchen. With a humorous style some have described as annoyed, and a little offensive, Nick Black all but delivers these meals to your door. If youre busy, lazy, or hungry, this book is for you.
