

They had fought long and hard, and damn near won in spite of everything. But now the men who hired them are going to sell them to the enemy...and so begins a novel of adventure in which a band of Star Mecenaries is driven across the face of a planet by enemies bent on their distruction. With only the guns in their hands, this tiny band must battle ships, artillery, treachery, and the most powerful tank in the universe.

On December 16, The Forlorn Hope--the name they had given to the small group of brave souls--got an early start after a sorrowful farewell to those they were. Later known as the Forlorn Hope , the group consisted of: *Luis and Salvador (19, 28), Miwok guides, murdered for food. *Antonio (23), a teamster, died *Patrick . It seems reasonable to expect a group called the 'avant-garde' to have been the first into battle but, before them, went the 'forlorn hope'. These soldiers, also called the 'forlorn boys' or 'forlorn fellows', were given little hope of survival by their peers. The "Forlorn Hope" group, as it was known, had been gone for three weeks, but no rescuers had arrived back from California. Forlorn Hope.

The 'Verlorene Haufe' or Forlorn Hope as they are known, are comprised of prisoners and volunteers desperate for glory. Their job is to lead the first and usually.
