

You've waited months, perhaps years, for your trip to Walt Disney World. Don't waste time in line once you're finally there. Barrett's flexible touring plans—customized to the interests of (1) adults and teens, (2) families with younger children, and (3) seniors and others who don't enjoy thrill rides—will keep you ahead of the crowds. And thanks to his planning and packing suggestions, you'll hit the ground ready for all the fun Disney World has to offer. Barrett's insider tips on scores of little-known things to do at WDW make this book appealing to both first-time visitors and Disney veterans. An all-new How well do you know Walt Disney World? photo quiz adds to the fun, while an extensive index makes look-ups easy. Whether you're after the locations and reservations numbers for character meals, rundowns on the theme-park attractions, or special things to do with that special someone, you'll find it at your fingertips. Color photos add magic to this fully updated tenth edition.
