

The McClains of Legend, Tennessee are loud, opinionated, and dedicated to family and community. Whats not to love? USA Today Bestselling Author Magdalena Scott invites you to slow down and enjoy the simple pleasures of small town life in Legend, Tennessee. Each title in The McClains of Legend, Tennessee series features a member of that big, bull-headed McClain family as either the hero or heroine. Each story is sweet romance (also known as wholesome romance). Readers enjoy being able to share the stories with daughters, mothers, and granddaughters. So pop some corn, pour some sweet tea, and settle into your comfy chair for a relaxing read. BUNDLE #2 includes BUILDING A DREAM Chloe McClain is an artist, so she's used to creating something from nothing. This time, though, the project is bigger than her usual canvas--this time she's bought a big dilapidated building to rehab into a classy art gallery. Should be easy enough; she'll hire Greg Andrews and his construction crew. Greg's work has gotten good reviews from everyone in Legend. Of course there is kind of a rush on the project! Greg is a professional, and his professional opinion is that Chloes pile of bricks should be put out of its misery. There's no way he can bring the place up to code by her deadline, let alone turn it into the showplace she has in mind. But Chloes a McClain, and besides a wide stubborn streak, that means social status. Greg can't afford to turn down the job. But more than that, he can't afford to fall for the spitfire who hired him. When you live in Legend, Tennessee, there are certain things to remember. People in Legend pull together. Community before self. And you never want to take a wrong step around a McClain--even the cute females. SECOND CHANCES Anne McClain Bradley has returned to Legend, Tennessee after a personal tragedy sent her successful, well-ordered life reeling. Midnight Shelby McClain has offered Anne the apartment over The Emporium, and Anne is cautiously hopeful that her heart, and her family connections in Legend, can heal. Pete Garrity is new in Legend, having been hired as the general manager of The Legend Post-Dispatch by the newspapers elderly owner. Pete has a past he won't discuss, and hasn't gotten close to anybody in town. As a hideaway, Legend seemed perfect. But now Pete finds himself stuck in Legend with no way out, and worries that his career is finished. What a surprise when Anne Bradley turns up in Legend--she might be just the answer to his dilemma. But every time Anne looks at Pete, she's reminded of the pain she came here to escape. Legend has a way of healing broken hearts, no matter how longstanding the brokenness. But first one must believe in possibilities...for second chances, and for moving forward with hope. CHRISTMAS CHARM: A SHORT STORY In spite of her intentions to spend Christmas on the beach, Meg is on her way to Legend, Tennessee for a small town Christmas with her boyfriend and his family. When Christopher's flight is delayed, Meg finds herself staying with his mother, Anne McClain Bradley, and in the midst of an old-fashioned holiday with a family that's not her own. But the McClains, and the other good people of Legend, Tennessee know how to make anyone feel loved and welcomed. Especially at Christmas. Spend your Christmas in Legend, Tennessee.
