

Four years ago Jessica Taylor thought she was ready to leave small town living behind and headed West. Now shes back in Cedar Creek, a little older, a lot wiser, and ready to live the quiet life for a while. Its been eight months since her fiancee walked out and shattered Grace Donnellys dreams of a happily ever after. Her friends tell her its time to start living again, but the breakup with Emma was still just too raw for Grace to wash her hands and move on. After a chance meeting at her brothers bakery, Jessica finds herself unable to get Grace off of mind. Shes sure she feels an attraction from Grace as well, but will Jessica be able to convince Grace to stop living in the past and take a chance on a future together with her...
