

Starting a family was difficult for Lara and Michael, so when Eli was born, the new parents were delighted. It's obvious from the first day, however, that Eli is special. He doesn't react normally to any stimuli, and he doesn't vocalize. Caring for a baby is often stressful, and Eli requires patience his father doesn't have. When Eli is three, Michael calls it quits, and walks out on his family. Lara, is now dealing with her son's condition as a single parent, and she is beginning to feel outside pressures as well. Then, a friend offers the perfect getaway, a weekend at a mountain cabin where she can just be with Eli. Yet, when the toddler disappears during an afternoon outing, Lara receives assistance of the supernatural kind.
