

Poems by Pulsar Poetry Webzine editor, David Pike. Poems from year 2007 to 2011. Cover note: From the mighty majesty of Shakespeare, the brooding passion of Byron and the protest prose of Dylan, it is always poetry that tells a tale of our time. Here in David Pike's new book we have a delightful set of pictures painted with words. It is the world today seen through eyes full of whimsy. It is written with a light hand and a light heart. Some sketch the natural world in all its rugged beauty, some take a comic swipe at the modern age and its beliefs, while others draw a ghostly tale or illustrate the lush landscapes of our Wiltshire homes. David's poems are a heartfelt heartbeat bustling along with a lyrical musical vibe. Flicky Harrison "Swindon Advertiser"
