

The kinkier the sex, the higher the price tagâ€”Ryan Black has admired Celestina Sala from afar for years, her lush body and sensual nature calling to the dominant in him. For just as many years, Celestina was off-limitsâ€”married, proud and self-sufficient. But all that has changed, and now Celestina is in debt and in needâ€”and available. Ryan proposes a contract: he'll pay off her debt if she gives herself to him in bed, yielding control in exchange for the pain and pleasure he'll bring them both. There are words for women who take money for sex, and none of them are nice ones. Celestina never thought she'd have to sink this low, but giving up control sounds more enticing than ever before. And suddenly it's not about having to give in to Ryan. It's about wanting to. But when Ryan's dark past comes to light, they may both be in over their heads. The terms of his contract say her body is hisâ€”but her heart may be another story. One thing is for sureâ€”now that Ryan has Celestina, he can never let her go. 100,160 words

By putting in a backup offer, you'll be positioned as the next buyer in line should the current contract fall through. If you've fallen in love with a home that is under.

One problem: it's already under contract or has a sale pending. What's the This is because at this stage, the deal can easily fall through. At that point, the property's status typically changes from for sale to under contract or in contract. That tells other buyers and real estate agents that the seller. When a house is under contract, can you still make an offer? That means should the first offer fall through (and that is possible if there are.

If an offer is accepted, a contract is signed and the property is reclassified from 'for sale' to 'under contract'; however, it is important to. Whether you're thinking of buying or selling a home or are currently in the process, when a buyer and seller agree to terms in a contract that it is not a done deal. Home sale contingent offers in real estate have a much greater chance to fall.
