

There's a lot to love about this debut novel for Cynthia Lucas. The plot is tight, and the story is well paced with liberal helpings of action and adventure! Jill MacKenzie - InDTale Magazine October 2012 Issue, FOUR STAR Review. www.indtale.com ALL NEW EDITION: Featuring Award Winning Actor (Cold Mountain, Dreamworks Into the West, Street Fighter: The Movie), JAY TAVARE on the cover. A single act of kindness...a mysterious golden coin...one bolt of lightning...a touch of Gypsy magic: the recipe for love across time.... Sarah Douglas is 23, beautiful, smart and about to marry the perfect guy. Level-headed, nice-looking, honest and intelligent, David du Bois is not only the son of her father's business partner, but the kind of man any mom would want their daughter to marry. Right? Or so she thought...until her mother gives her a mysterious good luck charm on the eve of her wedding, telling her that it's a family tradition and if she keeps it with her all night, she will know her heart's true desire. Sarah thinks it's all just a bunch of silly Gypsy hocus pocus but she soon discovers that a walk in the night air and an eerie bolt of lightning is all it takes to sweep her out of the world she knows and into the arms of Dominic du Barbaronne-the handsome blue-eyed leader of a band of Romanies in the year 1363. Dominic is everything Sarah has come to distrust in men...too good-looking, too sure of himself and way too passionate to ever be faithful to one woman. But stranded in the world of medieval France, with its lack of creature comfort and where women are treated as nothing more than chattel, Sarah finds she must place her trust in him to care for her basic needs and see to her protection until she can figure out a way home. Now if she could just figure out a way to stop feeling the things she is feeling for Dominic....and convince him that he must let her go despite the fact that he's determined to keep her with him in the 14th century as she is to go back to her own time. When fate deals a hand that may separate them forever, Sarah soon finds she can no longer deny the searing white hot love that spans across time itself. The kind that only comes in that special time and place When Lightning Strikes.

A helmeted bicyclist experienced a lightning strike to the head under fair weather conditions with a cloudless sky. It was determined that the bolt probably hit. If you know your house has just been hit directly by lightning, call the fire department. It is common for lightning to start fires in the attic and within walls of homes. When lightning strikes, the results can be deadly. But nature's dazzling light show also can provide scientists with insights into when and where. It is not always possible to know exactly how a victim has been struck, but here is a list of ways that lightning strikes its victims. Any of these types of strikes can. If you lie down during a thunderstorm, an electrical current passing through the ground from a nearby lightning strike can pass right through. One lightning flash could run a whole power station "and there are 8 million strikes around the Earth every day. We still don't know what lightning strikes do, however, differ from the industrial shocks you'd receive from high-voltage equipment. First, the level of voltage is greater in.
